OVERNIGHT EDITION

The Song Hit the World is Singing

My Daddy's Coming Home

Words and Music by

DAVID W. COOPER

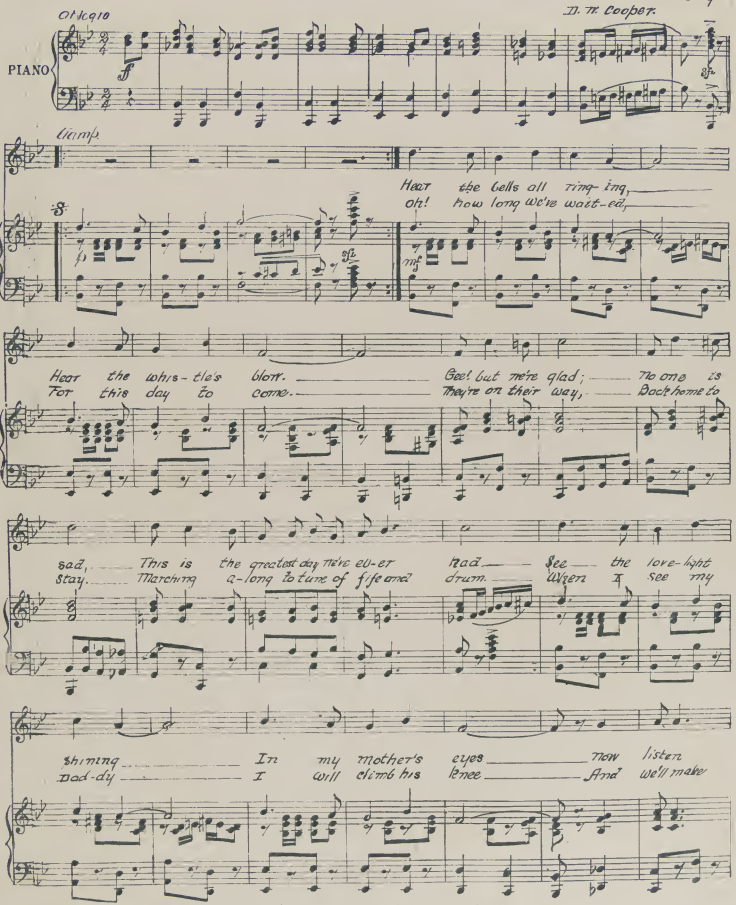
NOTE — Owing to the phenomenal demand for this song all precedents in music publishing were broken. This copy is a photographic reproduction of the original manuscript and was printed and ready for distribution in less than 48 hours after the song was written.

Published by D. W. COOPER MUSIC COMPANY

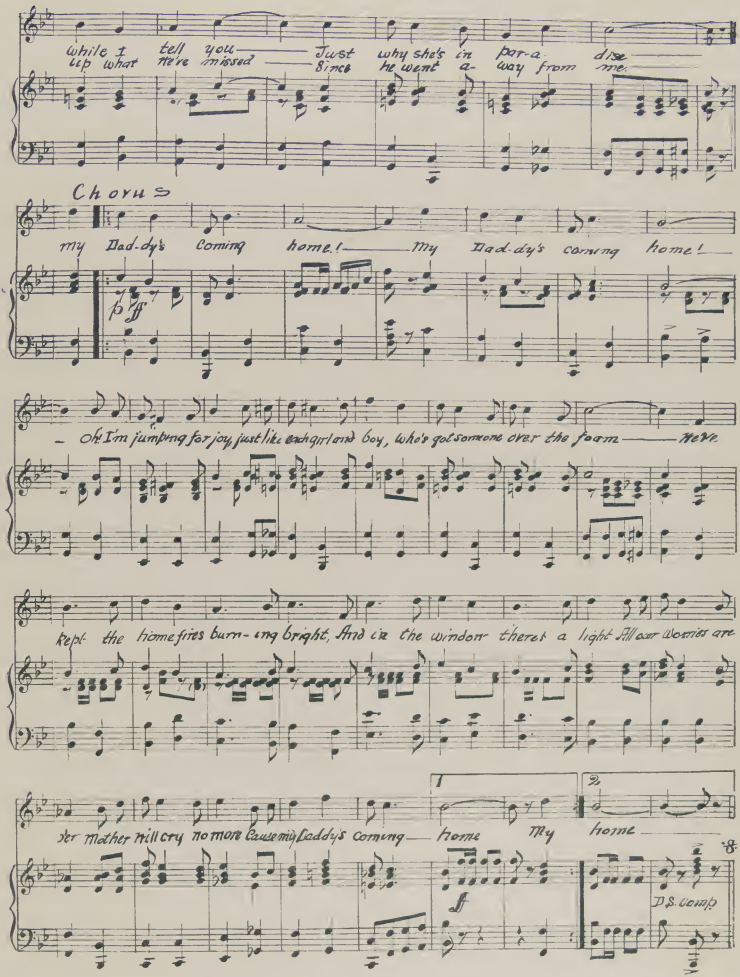
224 TREMONT STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

My Daddy's Coming Home

Words and music by
D. M. Cooper.



International Copyright Secured.
Copyright 1918 by D. M. Cooper Boston, Mass
all rights reserved.



while I tell you Just why she's in par-a dise
Lip what we're missed Since he went a- way from me.
Chorus
my Dad-dy's coming home! My Dad-dy's coming home!
Oh I'm jumping for joy just like each girl and boy, Who's got someone over the foam Here kept the home fires burn- ing bright, And in the window there's a light All our Worries are 1 2
her Mother will cry no more Cause my Daddy's coming home My home
ff
D.S. Comp

A DELIGHTFULLY DIFFERENT

SONG HIT

I'M GOING TO CLIMB
THE BLUE RIDGE MOUNTAINS
BACK TO YOU

FOR SALE AT ALL

Woolworth, Kresge, Kress or Grant Stores

or wherever music is sold

Published by D. W. Cooper Music Co., 224 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.